The Arc is a membership organization made up of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, their families, friends, interested citizens, and professionals in the disability field. The Arc has both state and local chapters, which make it the largest volunteer-based organization in the United States devoted solely to working on behalf of its constituency. For more than half a century, chapters of The Arc have worked throughout the nation to ensure that their constituents have the support and services they need, are accepted in their communities, and have control of their lives.

The Arc, Susquehanna Valley is proud to offer AMPES, A Meeting Place for Expanding and Sharing. This is a weekly drop-in program for people with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities in six locations throughout our five-county coverage area. This program offers crafts, recreational activities, life-skills, socialization training and light snacks for the self-advocates. The Arc also provides a Social/Recreational Program that provides many social and community activities throughout the year, such as bowling, dances, bus trips, and the Secret Pal Club. You do not need to be a member of The Arc to attend any of our events. The Arc also offers job training programs, Discovery for customized employment and representative payee service to help manage money.
